

Windows

N*E*R*D

Uh-ohh

Every single night I'm staring in her window

(de da da da doe doe doe)

She's fresh in a towel and the lights are dimmed low

(de da da da doe doe doe)

If you seen, what I've seen, she's a 10 yo

(de da da da doe doe doe)

You would be, (ah) staring in her window (the eyes are the windows to the soul)

You would be, (ah) staring in her window!

Uh-ohh

My best friend said I couldn't do this no more

(de da da da doe doe doe)

I'm like that's the reason very different from my friends so.

(de da da da doe doe doe)

'cause you've seen, what I've seen, she's a 10 yo

De da da da doe doe doe)

You would be, (ah) staring in her window (the eyes are the windows to the soul)

You would be, (ah) staring in her window!

Uh-ohh

(de da da da doe doe doe)

(de da da da doe doe doe)

Look at her, she's my medicine

In those magazines, and all that oestrogen

I bet she liked me, but my conscious says to guess again

If she ever did, I would be ready then

The best time to watch is like 1 or 2 o'clock

In a fucking world she gone come over and rock

I wonder if she'll be down with it a lot

Shes taking off her clothes...

And about to close to window

Uh-ohh

She's like the bill through my gates that was entitled Windows

(de da da da doe doe doe)

She said "don't go Microsoft, you're liking when I've been low, (don't you, don't you)"

(de da da da doe doe doe)

I said, if you see, what you mean, 'cause that's my twin yo

(de da da da doe doe doe)

And erm, we see you staring in our windows damn.

They caught me staring in her window!

Uh-oh

Uh-oohwoaho

Yea
