

In The Wind

NIGHTS

I wish I could see the look on your face
I wish I could of been the man who stayed
Hurts to know that you're not honest with me
Maybe oh baby maybe some day that'll change

Ooh...
Hurts to know...

I fucked up but I finally found my place
Don't sell yourself short cause love surly fades
Surly fades now
Hurts to know that you're not honest with me
Drowning, drowning ankles anchored to chains

Ooh...
Hunts to know...
