NIGHTS

Queen is in control I get her blouse undone
Love you in my temple mummy love
Anything I achieve it ain't enough
I lick it up until she finally bust
Cause has life been cruel to me
Love you through eternity
Bet ya opportunity is near
An I ain't gonna waste your time

She's asking me to love again surrender all of my pride
Loving you is foolish for me, babe, cause you are divine
You raise me from the tomb again and resurrected my vine
Mummy animosity, cause has life been cruel to me
You raise me from the tomb again and resurrected my vine
Mummy animosity, cause has life been cruel to me

There's no reason to fear me
But the boys that surround you ain't nice, yah
Make a mistake an I'll feed you to Lycian's with palm red skies
, yah
And the champagne so bubbly I 3 peat in a one piece with that b itch I might, I might
I'm discreet an I'm loyal in my wolf pack won't calm down ambit
