

Without You

NIGHTS

Baby do you want tequila? (Mhmm)
Oh you know that I need ya (Ooo)
Shake it for oh mi e ah
Got me oh mi ah
Oh you know that I need ya

I need someone who doesn't lie
I don't trust a bitch in a disguise
Ima have to make a sacrifice
Give you my condolences tonight

Never trust a bitch in a disguise
She want me to sign the dotted line
Baby tell me it's gonna be alright
Singing la la bye until I die

As long as it takes even tho body's be aching
We're changing locations, I promise you patience
Take it out all on me, because you know I can take it, no retaliation
I'll always be waiting
Fall apart, without you
I can't fall in love anymore, without you
Loss of words, cause it hurts, without you

I wanna hold you tight, never let you go (without you)
No one else left to hold
In the parking lot
Drinking, smoking, sex in the morning, in the morning

Without you
Without you
Without you
Without you
