In The End

N'sync

Lights are out, up in smoke.
Never felt so damn alone.
No one's left to take me home, take me home.
Hold your breath and think of me,
Love on fire with gasoline.
Nothing's left.
Just a dream, just a dream.

In the end, don't wanna see you fall apart,
Don't wanna hear your broken heart.
Don't look back, nothing's gonna save us in the end,
Don't wanna see you fade away,
Don't wanna live for yesterday.
Don't look back,
Nothing's gonna save us.

Rode the wind, felt the rush,
Nothing ever was enough.
All the gold turned to dust, turned to dust.

In the end, don't wanna see you fall apart,
Don't wanna hear your broken heart.
Don't look back, nothing's gonna save us in the end,
Don't wanna see you fade away,
Don't wanna live for yesterday.
Don't look back,
Nothing's gonna save us.

No, nothing's gonna save us,
But it's the only thing I dream of,
And I never wanna wake up.
(In the end, in the end)

No, nothing's gonna save us,
But it's the only thing I dream of,
And I never wanna wake up.
(Nothing's gonna save us)

In the end, don't wanna see you fall apart,
Don't wanna hear your broken heart.
Don't look back, nothing's gonna save us in the end,
Don't wanna see you fade away,
Don't wanna live for yesterday.
Don't look back,
Nothing's gonna save us.
(Nothing's gonna save us in the end)

Nothing's gonna save us.
Nothing's gonna save us.
