

Just Wait

Nada Surf

(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)

Millions of souls
They're young and they're old
I'm here with you
We've got something to lose
Slow down and see where it goes

So when it feels too big
And you can't find your place
You've got too many choices
Are you the only one
Who doesn't know their way?
There're so many noises
(Ooh) You're gonna be just fine
(Ooh) It might take some time
But you gotta know it's gonna be okay
Just wait
Just wait

We're hollow and stressed
The worst and the best
They say you get just one try
But that's just a lie
It's a long life
And time doesn't fly

When it feels too big
And you can't find your place
You've got too many choices
Are you the only one
Who doesn't know their way?
There're so many noises
(Ooh) You're gonna be just fine
(Ooh) It might take some time
But you gotta know it's gonna be okay
Just wait
Just wait

Love and work and where you live
And what you take and what you give
Love and work and where you live
And what you take and what you give

When it feels too big
And you can't find your place
You've got too many choices
Are you the only one
Who doesn't know their way?
There're so many noises
(Ooh) You're gonna be just fine
(Ooh) It might take some time
But you gotta know it's gonna be okay
Just wait
Just wait

(Ooh)

(Ooh)

Millions of souls

They're young and they're old

I'm here with you

We've got something to lose

Slow down and see where it goes