

At The End

Nadia Ali

When you're away I feel I'm empty
I lose my mind
But when you're around I take for granted
Most of our time

Honey you say that I'm cold
And sometimes I'm out of control
Baby you know how I am, at the end
You were always my man

I don't mean to, when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be, when I'm crazy
At the end you're, still my only

At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end

Right when you're gone I really miss you
You got my heart
But when you come back I just won't kiss you
And it tears you apart

Honey, I do make mistakes
Believe me, it's better this way
Baby, I'm true and I'm real
I'm giving you all that I feel

I don't mean to, when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be, when I'm crazy
At the end you're, still my only

I don't mean to, when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be, when I'm crazy
At the end you're, still my only

Sweetie I'm trying my best
To give you the most and no less
Darling I'm true and I'm real
I'm giving you all that I feel

I don't mean to, when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be, when I'm crazy
At the end you're, still my only

I don't mean to, when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be, when I'm crazy
At the end you're, still my only
