Get The Devil Out

Nadia Reid

I gotta get the devil out of me
I'm searching for the permanence
So that I can breathe again

You took that razor through your skin
Not enough there to [?] die
Just enough so that you can breathe again

I'm making friends with who I used to be
She was a little shorter
She was a little lighter

I am only one woman
You are only one man
I tried to find religion, mmm
I am right as I am

I've always taken a little longer
Little further out to some deserted sea
It was a good time for freedom
You watched me dancing in front of your TV

I am only one woman
You are only one man
They will try to take it from you, mmm
Right as I am

They will never take it from me
They will never take it from me
They will never take it from me
They will never take it from me
