

Fool For Love

Nadine Coyle

I see you every day and I bide my time
So much I try and say but it don't feel right
Lying here face-to-face, any fool could tell
We're tryna play a game we both know too well

I'm a fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
Fool for love
Everybody say it loud, now you're hearing the alarm bells ringing
Fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
Fool for love
Everybody say it loud, now you're hearing the alarm bells ringing
Everybody saying
Fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
Fool for love
Everybody say it loud, now you're hearing the alarm bells ringing
Everybody saying

Well we go back and forth but it's all the same
Something's been happening and I can't think straight
Don't try to turn away because there's no use
And I don't understand what you've got to lose

I'm a fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
Fool for love
Everybody say it loud, now you're hearing the alarm bells ringing
Everybody saying
Fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
Fool for love
Everybody say it loud, now you're hearing the alarm bells ringing
Everybody saying

Everybody saying
Everybody saying

Bring me in, bring me in
I know what's wrong
Bring me in, bring me in
I know what's wrong
Bring me in, bring me in
I know what's wrong
Bring me in, bring me in
I know what's wrong

Everybody saying
Fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
Fool for love
Everybody say it loud, now you're hearing the alarm bells ringing
Everybody saying
Fool for love
You don't even really care, you don't even give a damn what I'm thinking
