

Hello

So there I was, didn't know where I was
Way down at the deep end
We hung out for an hour
Which turned to a day, which turned to a weekend

And usually, I just show the me I want you to see
And that's true
But I have to act in a month or two
So, yo dude, I ain't done with you

You're my rock, I'm your paper
Yeah, I got you covered
Life was bad till I met you
Then I rediscovered
How to live without feeling so low
Cause since your eyes met with mine
Lately, I've been feeling high

I've been down for quite some time
In the maze inside my mind
You found me stuck and you picked me up
And you know I was so low, riding so low
Now I'm high

So here I am
Not the same as I appear I am
And I think that's pretty cool
Cause you taught me to feel comfortable
Being comfortable, I get it
And I used to think that I knew a thing
About how to feel good while living

You stuck by me if I wanted you to or not I won't forget it
And that's fine by me
My life's been super high since you came in it
Cause I used to wrestle my thoughts
Nowadays, if a thought wanna tussle my brain is a muscle we've been training a lot
They don't get how tough I got

You're my rock, I'm your paper
Yeah, I got you covered
Life was bad till I met you
Then I rediscovered
How to live without feeling so low
Cause since your eyes met with mine
Lately, I've been feeling high

I've been down for quite some time
In the maze inside my mind
You found me stuck and you picked me up
And you know I was so low, riding so low
Now I'm high
