Nafe Smallz

Lilah, flip the beat, yeah

I ain't got sit here and act like a saint to you, baby, you know I ain't shit

But, I come a long way from out of the trenches, my baby, you know I've been lit (Yeah)

I was stuck deep in some shit with my niggas

I know you was fully legit, I was stuck on the strip

When I told you wait for me just for a minute, you thought I was takin' the piss

But look who's winnin' now, yeah

Look at who's winnin' now, yeah

I just walked past where you sat in the club and your girlfriends are spinnin' 'round on a nigga now, yeah

I seen that look on your face, I don't know how to spill it out, tryna figure out

I just been flyin' the flag for my city, that's why I ain't been about

But, when I'm pullin' up in it

Hop out them Rolls Royce's with the umbrellas

And I went to stars, goin' interstellar

When I see her she be like I never met her

And I know that burn her like a cigarette

Watchin' stories when I'm in the gym

Told you this is how it's finna get

I guess you wasn't readin' my intellect

Now I'm gone in blink, fuck did you think? (How could you doubt on me?)

I can call up your twin, she ready to sin (She been tryna get around me)

Checkin' the ting but that's just a fling, ho' ('Cause I'm fuckin' with a new ting, yeah)

She wet, I'ma swim, lil' shorty a nympho (She wet, I'ma swim and I dive in, yeah)

Uh, when I dive in

Do that shit with impeccable timin'

Course I' high, I've been smokin' that island

Lit the swisher and fell out the sky

We can have us a hell of a night

You can see it's a hell of a life

I get wavy and send out a tide on it

I get money and bitches when I want it

Twenty-five, Illuminati, I'm preein' through hell eyes

Know she been watchin' my life, I've been televised

I need to find me a dealer who's sellin' time

I've been spendin' like I got a credit line

Karats on me like I'm Bugs Bunny and it's dinner time

Bad bitches tell 'em, "Get in line"

I'm already zoned, I'm already high

Now I'm gone in blink, fuck did you think? (How could you doubt on me?)

I can call up your twin, she ready to sin (She been tryna get around me)

Checkin' the ting but that's just a fling, ho' ('Cause I'm fuckin' with a new ting, yeah)
