

ENOUGH

Nahko and Medicine for the People

My lover was psychopath
I would know, I was just like that
Shit got ugly, yeah it got real bad
Never failed, always came right back

So thank you for the lessons
Fuck you for all the abuse
I will birth new life from darkness
Like I always do

Cause I was fucking made for this
Now watch me get paid for it

Take it from me!
When I lost everything, I realised nothing happens to me
It's all happening for me!
With every stone they cast, I'll build something that lasts
My God, I don't regret my past does not define what's next for me!
And I am enough. Just as I am.

Enough, enough, enough, enough
Enough, enough, enough, enough
Enough, enough, enough, enough
I am enough, yes, I am!

Here we are in the aftermath
Dying to live is the only path
I could teach a fucking master class
Shit so heavy you just have to laugh

So thank you for the lessons
Fuck you for all the abuse
I will birth new life from darkness
Like I always do

Cause I was fucking made for this
Now watch me get paid for it

The one thing that remains
My willingness to change
This is the way

Take it from me! When I lost everything, I realised nothing happens to me
It's all happening for me!
With every stone they cast, I'll build something that lasts
My God, I don't regret my past does not define what's next for me!
And I am enough. Just as I am.

Enough, enough, enough, enough
Enough, enough, enough, enough
I am enough
Enough, enough, enough, enough
Enough, enough, enough, enough
Enough, enough, enough, enough
I am enough, yes, I am!
