

ONLY WAY OUT

Nahko and Medicine for the People

Only way, it's the only way
Only way, it's the only way
Going deeper and deeper

Yeah, deeper, deeper, she said go deeper
Truth is your trauma doesn't excuse your behavior
I'm calling it what it is, bitches and fakers
And snitches and traitors and people who would rather see you die
Than take another breath, a rope around your neck
When your creds die, projection over healing
Is easy to weaponize, she knew what she was doing
'Cause she's done it before with her baby daddy she scored
Bitch, that's called extortion, monetary gain, momentary fame
Yeah she went and copied the system
And the same motherfuckers preaching white allied-ship
For BIPOC voices, the tools of the predator
Disguised as justice, your movement's exploited
Commandeered by the very fools that supported
I'll be the poster boy, but you'll be so annoyed
'Cause I was built for it

Shout out to the women in my life
You know you saved my life
You never left my side
You walked me through the fire
Yeah, I was never buried
I was deep in the work
And I'm bouncing back like a twerk
They hear me coming and skrt

Tear a hole in the dimension
I need to dip out for one night
No cap, killers stabbing in backs
Lord I can't believe my eyes
Only way, the only way out is
Going deeper and deeper
Only way, the only way out is
Going deeper and deeper
Only way, it's the only way
Going deeper and deeper
Only way, it's the only way
Going deeper and deeper

The one who said his truth and turned around and got canceled
I guess that's on you 'cause you don't know that I can handle
I got this other side that you didn't know that I could channel
I guess I gotta, uh
Shoutout to the women I protect 'cause I see that they invest
In my future, I'll forever be in debt
No shoutout to my ex, she a bird, must have got it from her nest
Yeah these bitter bitches killing for the rest
Ain't tryna talk about it, that's why I ain't said much
Been giving energy, I hope this shit get cleared up
If I'm lashing out it's probably 'cause I'm fed up
Still no backing down, I gotta keep my head up
Shit feel like
Shit feel like I'm moving up a hill

I'm just hoping that the truth will get revealed, until then
Until then I gotta keep this shit concealed
Scared to let you in and tell you how I feel, that is how it go

Tear a hole in the dimension
I need to dip out for one night
No cap, killers stabbing in backs
Lord I can't believe my eyes
Only way, the only way out is
Going deeper and deeper
Only way, the only way out is
Going deeper and deeper
Only way, it's the only way
Going deeper and deeper
Only way, it's the only way
Going deeper and deeper
