

Imposing Will

Nails

Constrained to this shit system
Solely against my will
Not content with what was given
My soul can't be fulfilled
I found the truth, the resolution
To give strength to my scars
I don't care, I'm not scared
To force my vision into law

Impulsive thrill
Intent to kill
Force them under my control
Imposing will

I don't know another way
I know I don't have a place
I don't know what to say
So, give me strength to cause them pain
Fulfill the need to see them crawl
The need to feel nothing at all
To take back what they stole
To keep reason under control

Impulsive thrill
Intent to kill
Force them under my control
Imposing will

It can never be enough

No matter how deep it cuts
It will never be enough
