

No Love In The World

Naked Eyes

I don't mind if you don't care
Right in the sky

Nowhere to go, well, nowhere to mention
Time goes so slow when there's no intention

Well, what you gonna do with your love tonight?
Are you hoping someone might come back?
Take you by surprise?

There's no love in the world

Love conquers all without any mercy
You'll never fool the hearts that turn you

So, what you gonna do when your love runs dry?

Look me in the eye and say:

"No love in the world"
There's no love in the world

Well, what you gonna do with your love tonight?
Are you hoping someone might come back?
Take you by surprise?

There's no love in the world
There's no love in the world
There's no love in the world
There's no love in the world
