

Knock Me Down

Naked Raygun

You ride around
You're like a sailing swan
And I worship the soil which you walk upon
Still my heart is pierced by your neglect
You took my love and threw it away
I salvaged it just the other day
You took my heart and you hocked it
Oh girl, I gotta get it back some way

You ride around
You're like a sailing swan
I worship the soil which you walk upon
Still my heart is pierced by your neglect
Oh girl, I gotta get you back

Still you knock me down
You know you knock me down
Girl you knock me down
You know you knock me
(and I am hurting)

You ride around
You're like a sailing swan
And I worship the soil which you walk upon
Still my heart is pierced by your neglect
Oh girl, I gotta get you back
Still you knock me down
You know you knock me down
Girl you knock me down
You know you knock me
