

1,2,3 Are You Ready?

Nana Darkman

Back in days as we speak and multiply the thoughts in my mind what will happen when i die free as a bird happy in the sky war on our earth lord why oh why justice please take me by the hand lead me to the place just like alice went to wonderland damn i am in a bad mood what shall i do excuse you for abuse thank you thy kingdom come and you'll see what i mean deep breathe inhale for some oxygen where i've been you never can imagine lookin' for the light day after still laughin' life sucks payback is a bitch i pray to god yes i wanna be rich lookin' for money and the faith real quick been thinkin' about it all the time makes me really sick

1,2,3 are you ready for the slow jam
1,2,3 are you ready
we won't stop 'til we gettin' our thing

look time for me and you to take a look in the book read between the lines no garantie you get the book ready or not you better watch out coz here i come let me say hi to bill and hillary clinton what about the subject my brothers in the projects a minute or two will do my love and my respect hard times i've been thru no gold on my spoon mama left me my sister and my two brothers too back behind still together we climb searchin' day and night prayin' for a better life lord dear lord in heaven above obedience is better than sacrifice that's why i am tough freedom and justice exactly what we lookin' for free our pains and maintain so earth and the universe now is the time to go for you and yours
