For Some

Nancy Sinatra

For some
There is fortune
For some
There is fame
For me, I care only
To share your name

For some
Life is funny
For some, it's a game
For me, it's a longing
To share your name

You're all that I've dreamed of Can you're in my arms tonight? Well, it must be a true love Because it feels so right

For some, there is treasure For some, want to play

For me, I care only To share your name For me, I care only To share your name
