

Kinky Love

Nancy Sinatra

Kinky love, kinky I'm mad about you
Kinky love, I need you so bad, I need you kinky love
Kinky you're all that I've been thinking of Kinky take me inside
And let the honey slide
I need you kinky love

Good to me
Kinky do all the things you should to me
Wake up the love that sleep inside of me
Open your gates and let the river free
Oh, kinky take me inside
And let the honey slide
I need you kinky love

Late at night in my bed as I lie here, somewhere in limbo land
Half-awake, half-asleep, halfway some place else
I know I should be sleeping
But how can I close my eyes

When you know I understand you're a man
And you've got to have your kinky love?

Hey, don't you know I understand you, man
And you've just got to have your kinky love?

Kinky love, kinky I'm mad
About you, kinky love
Oh, kinky be bad
I want your kinky love
Kinky it's all that I've been thinking of

Oh, kinky take me inside
And let the honey slide
I need you kinky love
Oh, kinky take me inside
And let the honey slide
I need you kinky love

Mmm, take me inside
And let the honey slide
I need you kinky love
