

Rockin' Rock and Roll

Nancy Sinatra

Oh, well, the sun is high
And the moon is fine
And my baby's out
Selling time

And the man just spoke
I guess you ought to know
He said, he'll always be
Rockin' rock and roll

I saw a purple cat (purple cat)
Make a funny sign! (funny sign)
And the sun went down (sun went down)
For the second time (second time)

And we all went up (all went up)
And the man stay loved (man stay loved)
He said, he'll always be (he'll always be)
Rockin' rock and roll

How you gonna keep us?
You gotta beat in slippers
If you don't let us do
Anything we want to

We don't wanna shaking
As we severely awaking
But there's something new
We gotta say to you

Oh, well, the moon just wait (moon just wait)
As the dog named Sam (dog named Sam)
And he gave issues (gave issues)
To the laundry man (the laundry man)

But the man just left (man just left)
When he saw that show (saw that show)
And said, they'll always be (they'll always be)
Rockin' rock and roll

How you gonna keep us?
You gotta beat in slippers
If you don't let us do
Anything we want to

We don't wanna shaking
As we severely awaking
But there's something new
We gotta say to you

Oh, well, the moon just wait (moon just wait)
As the dog named Sam (dog named Sam)
And he gave issues (gave issues)
To the laundry man (laundry man)

But the man just left (man just left)
When he saw that show (saw that show)

And said, they'll always be (they'll always be)
Rockin' rock and roll

He said, they'll always be (they'll always be)
Rockin' rock and roll
Oh, yeah
