Let's Live Again

Nancy Wilson

LET'S LIVE AGAIN

When I look at you, a dream came true
And suddenly right then
Moon beams where shimmering so bright
You were holding me so tight, won't you give again
Let's live again

Stars were in the sky's and filled my eyes
And I had to count ten
I sailed away up to the moon
Light and gay as a balloon
When you're giving, I'm livin again

I'm telling you true, I'm livin for you
I've got it bad and glad it had to be
I'm in a spin, you got the engine sign on me
Seize me, squeeze me

It's a lonely world my hearts unpearled the same as it was then
I'm flying frantically above, so romantically in love
Won't you give again, lets live again

I'm telling you true, I'm livin for you
I've got it bad and glad it had to be
I'm in a spin, you got the engine sign on me
Seize me, squeeze me

It's a lonely world my hearts unpearled the same as it was then
I'm flying frantically above so romantically in love
Won't you give again, lets live again
Won't you give again, lets live again
