

Good Luck

Nao

(Good luck
Good luck, good luck, good luck, good luck
Good luck
Good luck
Good luck, good luck, good luck, good luck)

All of a sudden
We've been broken down into nothing
It went up in flames now we're burning
Cut me away with your words like a blade
You said it was over
Hope you said everything that you wanted
I was drunk on love now I'm sober
There's no one to blame, let's go our separate ways
(Good luck, good luck, good luck, good luck)

'Cause you're gonna need it
It won't be easy
I'm not so replaceable (Good luck)

So much for someone
That you can call on
I won't be available

Good luck to who finds you
Save it for the next one

Good luck in your karma
I see you like you lost one (Good luck)
I wish you the best but ain't no body better
(Good luck, good luck, good luck, good luck)

Good luck with that, big shots, fine wine
I let it burn, baby, I don't lose, I learn
Who you give that to, hoping it fit like a tattoo
All I can wish you is good luck, good luck, good luck
She knows you're missing somebody
Put you number one like I did for nobody
Don't run to me crying, I won't feel your reign
I don't wanna know 'cause I ain't got time for games, good luck

(Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh)

Oh no
Oh no, no, no, no

'Cause you're gonna need it
It won't be easy
I'm not so replaceable (Good luck)

So much for someone
That you can call on
I won't be available

Good luck to who finds you
Save it for the next one

Good luck in your karma
I see you like you lost one
I wish you the best but ain't no body better
(Good luck, good luck, good luck, good luck)
