

Woman

Nao

Baby, you see me in the magic place
I got in with really good reason
To heaven with another face got me feeling so high
Baby, I'm living in this magic place, ooh
It's showing me that God's a woman, yeah
So maybe you should worship me
Yeah, I'm reigning the sky

Soon you ain't gotta tell me where to go, when to come down
Ain't been working this hard for the throne just to fall now
I guess you've gotta wait 'cause I don't wanna come down, yeah
I'm feeling so high

If God is a woman, on Sunday I'ma worship us
Take my mirror out the back and fill it with confidence
Yeah, a woman's worth is everything without you, baby
Put your blinkers on if you don't wanna hear it, baby
If it all falls down, I'll make another way again
'Cause I'm feeling so high

Take it (Don't look, don't look, don't look)
Can't take it all from me (Don't look, don't look, don't look)
Break it (Don't look, don't look, don't look)
Can't break it off from me, yeah, I'm reigning the skies

Plot it out, plot it out
Playing nothing, just ride it out
You're never lonely if you're feeling down
Yeah, we've all been through it
Let it go and say it out
Hold your head up and wear your crown
There's never no way that you're coming down
Got us feeling so high

Soon you ain't gotta tell me where to go, when to come down
Ain't been working this hard for the throne just to fall now
I guess you've gotta wait 'cause I don't wanna come down, yeah
I'm feeling so high

If God is a woman, on Sunday I'ma worship us
Take my mirror out the back and fill it with confidence
