

Bittersweet

Naomi Sharon

Share, bring me your love
To a broken heart
Mend it back up
Show me that you care
Show me your worth
To a hundred times of not giving up

I can forgive
By sharing my fire with yours
It's easy without the time, that's making us unsure
We're talking on the surface
Oh, right where the hurt is
Playing house in broken homes
All right in the furnace

Can we just be?
Stay bittersweet
Can we just be?
Stay bittersweet

You swear you thought that you had me pinned
Uncovered, but I'm still under your skin
Reaching for the finer moments
So we can say the last things over
Again, as you pull me under, under, under

I can forgive
By sharing my fire with yours
It's easy without the time, that's making us unsure
We're talking on the surface
Oh, right where the hurt is
Playing house in broken homes
All right in the furnace

Can we just be?
Stay bittersweet
Can we just be?
Stay bittersweet
