

Soft Like Dawn

Naomi Sharon

I guess we belong to the sunrise
Where we can find light combining sides
I guess we belong to the painted skies
Soft like dawn, where my heart lies

It doesn't feel so sane
Whenever you're unsure
We're drifting away
Oh
And I get lost
But I believe that this
Believe that this

For the last time I want you, all of it
For the last time I won't get caught in this
For the last time
Ooh, yeah

For the last time, I will push how I feel to the side
Could you just leave this behind?
Boy, if we could feel what's inside
Oh

I guess the wonders of my lifetime where with kindness
Was I too loyal for you lead by blindness?
While I was waiting for the sun
Oh

It doesn't feel so sane
Whenever you're unsure
We're drifting away
Oh
And I get lost
But I believe that this
Believe that this

'Cause for the last time I want you, all of it
For the last time, I won't get caught in this
For the last time
Ooh, yeah

For the last time, I will push how I feel to the side
Could you just leave this behind?
Boy, if we could feel what's inside
Oh
