

Nobody Knows You Anymore

Terra Naomi

I am lost
In my head again
These thoughts
Come in to haunt me
I am caught
In these memories
Of things
I left behind
Somewhere
I never knew I left them
They are lost
To me
I am stuck
In this body
Until
Something can free me
And then what
Where do I go from here
Lost again
Into the air
Into the sky
Into another body

And I am afraid
And nobody knows me anymore
I'm lost
Faceless
In this crowd
Again
I am alone
And I will always be alone
Maybe

You have seen all my weaknesses
And now
I stand before you
To be judged
As I judge you now
Flawed
As I am
See, I am blind
And this is my vision
These are my eyes

And I'm scared
And nobody knows me anymore
I'm lost
I am full of fear again
With all of these thoughts
Nobody knows
All of these places
You can never go
And this fear
When nobody knows you anymore
You're lost
