Deep End

Nardo Wick

Standin' on top of what we believe in
Standin' on top of what we believe in
Standin' on top of what we believe in
I didn't sink, stood tall in the deep end

Never surrender or throw the white flag
Standin' on top of what we believe in
Dove in that water, I didn't panic
I didn't sink, stood tall in the deep end
Never surrender or throw the white flag
Standin' on top of what we believe in
Dove in that water, I didn't panic
I didn't sink, stood tall in the deep end (What? What?)

Hoodie on, all my jewelry on, neck Frozone
When it's smoke, you gotta clear the air, turn the fan on Chopper ring at your doorstep, no ding-dong
Ain't nobody in the middle, Malcolm and the monkey gone
Short bitch like 5'2", call her Nia Long
Fuck them, no, it ain't beef, we just don't get along
Big load came, twelve hours later, it was all gone
It's 2022, my niggas still usin' flip phones
I don't think nobody fuckin' with me
Bankroll too much for dog shit, call it horse shit
Vroom, vroom, cut the engine on, they like, "Oh, shit"
Bird bitch got a long neck like an ostrich
Chopstick, gotta keep my buddy Drac', Cash Money shit
Get hit with him, it hurt, he don't feel good, I think my chop sick
Toxic, she ever lock her heart, I got a lockpick
Mix and match my fabrics when I dress, I got on that shit
Music band, I make the steel clap like a tambourine
Automatic Glock, it sound like drum rolls on the scene
He a detective, not an orchestrator, how the hell he made 'em sing?
I can't wait for Lil D to jump, my nigga need a trampoline
She say we don't never chill, well, I like it better when it's hot
I can't spend time, but I spent money on my watch
My Amiris must have fought Tyson, jeans got a lot of knots
Give that ho the boot, she must have parked in the wrong spot

Never surrender or throw the white flag
Standin' on top of what we believe in
Dove in that water, I didn't panic
I didn't sink, stood tall in the deep end
Never surrender or throw the white flag
Standin' on top of what we believe in
Dove in that water, I didn't panic
I didn't sink, stood tall in the deep end
