

Calling late, just a friend
Maybe she'll want me more
It's just so far from me
When closing my eyes I can see the other world
Wide awake once again, maybe I just want more
Calling late, just a friend
Maybe she'll need me more
You're so far away
When closing your eyes you can see through the other world
So let it out, safe and sound
Leave me out and I'll be found
Don't try to escape It's just pulling us down
Let it go and don't say its ok
We're spinning fast
Far away
