

It's Time

Nas

Ayo, Black, it's time
Ayo, Black, it's time
Yeah
Time traveling
Ayo, Black, it's time
Yeah

Ayo, time flows through me
How many rhyme flows and lines can I recite with my eyes closed?
Yo, let's shoot this movie, smoothly, listen to me
Let's take it to the past long before the new me
I seen it when it first got tricky
Dippin' through the city, whipping new cars to the herb spots for the sticky
I was the one by the tree in the GS3 with Biggie
Next thing you know, where the time go? it's gone quickly Spint down the street back where I used to be Stompin' grounds just touched down in QB
It's known for violence and money
Saw a brother fresh home, he just walked down 20
I stepped out, I stretched out
I took a breath in, let a breath out
I don't flex, don't want clout
But what I do want to see is my brothers are winning
And all my people out there cherish the time you given

I think you know what time it is
The illest shit that ever happened
I think you know what time it is
You know what time it is
Time traveling
The illest shit that ever happened

I use every second as a weapon
Every minute keeps on slipping
Time is a construct of your limits
The big bang to now
Evolution to how little time mankind has really been around
A grown, grown over 50 perspective
Is there an age limit to diss records or may it just be a message?
Kids are doing drive-bys, I'm looking like time flies
Squeezin' hammers, even when there's cameras up in the sky
Spark the la with the double R I drive
Pretty thugs show no love, it's like when doves cry
Maybe I'm just too much of a smuggler minded, hustler timeless
Couple hundred cover the knuckles with diamonds
Smell it on us, from the blocks they was tellin' on us
Wore a vest in the summer sweatin' and they tried gettin' on us
Prayers 'cause gangsters go to heaven and life's weighin' on us
Premier, play the chorus, yeah

I think you know what time it is
The illest shit that ever happened
I think you know what time it is
Time, man
Time traveling
Ayo, Black, it's time
