

This Is Real Life

Nashville Cast

This is real skin.
These are real smiles and tears.
This is gravity, stronger than any of your fears.
This is where the heartbeat hits the road.
This is where your dream becomes your soul.
This is real life, don't let it pass you by, laugh and cry.
This is real life, sometimes we love, sometimes we fight.
This is real life.
This is real life.
This is real life.
No spotlight, no rehearsal for the crowd.
All the moments, happening in the here and now.
This is where the heartbeat hits the road.
This is where your dream becomes your soul.
This is real life, don't let it pass you by, laugh and cry.
This is real life, sometimes we love, sometimes we fight.
This is real life.
This is real life.
This is real life.
Makes no difference how we began it, life has one last breath.
Sky worth flying has no limits if we don't forget.
This is real life, don't let it pass you by, laugh and cry.
This is real life, sometimes we love, sometimes we fight.
This is real life don't let it pass you by laugh and cry.
This is real life, sometimes we love, sometimes we fight.
This is real life.
This is real life.
This is real life.
This is real life.
