

Arabian Magic Train

Našrot

I had a dream about my trip to the Nile
Well, now I'm standing on a train and rollin' hash
Hey, hey, hey, it's a holy train
A nice girl with dark eyes gives me an invitation card
A train full of people & sand & sweaty shirts
The wind blows from the desert, I swallowed a trip
The sphinx with dark eyes, I'm down, down, down
The confusion of colours is flowing to my brain
The day with spread wings shows me its cheerful blue face
The big Celebration of Sun between the palms
Hey, hey, hey, I see from the train
One milion people, who dance in golden sand
My mind is burning, it's a new world for me
A nice girl with dark eyes strokes my long black hair
The sphinx with dark eyes, cruel, holy and wise
So come on together we'll fly away to space...
