Nasty C

Oh na na na na
Nasty C, Buffalo Souljah

Said girl ain't never look back
Looking for a treasure you don't even have a map
Ever since you lost weight and your pockets got fat
Took off from your city and you never looked back
Said girl

Girl you belong here
I'll never get used to you with that long hair
That new phone never calls home, yeah
It's been way too long since you been gone, yeah
The whole year, yeah
Girl you belong here
I'll never get used to you with that long hair
That new phone never calls home, yeah
It's been way too long since you been gone, yeah
The whole year, yeah
Girl

There's feelings being caught, I suggest you pick your lines wisely
Not like the time you used to call me late at night crying
'Cause I like the times you used to call me late at night crying
I'm under pressure, I'm reminded how the time is flying
Look how you made it through hell and it was a breeze
You were meant to go to Brazil, not for the weave
I saw "filters over feelings" one of your tweets where
It ain't that deep though but that's what she said
Tweet on baby, tweet on
You made it big now, that's your PR
Just never forget where you belong
That sounded way too familiar, I can't be wrong
I took you from they left you hanging, to where I been hanging
That's backstage passes, that's where your idols hanging
Where every picture snapped and they Instagram it
But when the camera flash, you forgot about your fam girl

Girl you belong here
I'll never get used to you with that long hair
That new phone never calls home, yeah
It's been way too long since you been gone, yeah
The whole year, yeah
Girl you belong here
I'll never get used to you with that long hair
That new phone never calls home, yeah
It's been way too long since you been gone, yeah
The whole year, yeah
Girl

Girl, you're a superstar
Ballin' in the club, yeah you dressed like a real star
I heard you were rolling with that bouncer
Girl, you got that sponsor
It's like Coca-Cola bottle
Shake girl shake, shake
How you flip them like rap music when you trip

You never had a passport-o
Now I see you posting pics upload-o
Somebody must have blessed you
Gal you've gotta give that man a break-o
Hope to you gal
You used to be a ride or die
Now you just another girl gone wild
Hope to you gal
You were my lover, my bride
Yeah I promise you're my future bride
Hope to you gal
You were partner in crime like Bonnie and Clyde

Girl you belong here
I'll never get used to you with that long hair
That new phone never calls home, yeah
It's been way too long since you been gone, yeah
The whole year, yeah
Girl you belong here
I'll never get used to you with that long hair
That new phone never calls home, yeah
It's been way too long since you been gone, yeah
The whole year, yeah
Girl

Said girl ain't never look back

Said girl ain't never look back
You're looking for a treasure you don't even have a map
Ever since you lost weight and your pockets got fat
Took off from your city and you never looked back

You belong here (girl you belong here)
Girl I'm missing you
You belong here (girl you belong here)
Girl when you coming back home
You belong here (girl you belong here)
Girl I'm missing you
You belong here (girl you belong here)
Girl when you coming back home

Said girl ain't never look back
You're looking for a treasure you don't even have a map
