

Flaws & All

Nasty C

It sounds like Cole should be on this shit right here man
You should be on this beat bro
This beat, just says... Dreamville
Nigga call me
(Yeah)

Way you love me, you gotta be out your mind yeah
Way you fuck me, you gotta be out your mind
You, look at me like I'm really one of a kind
There's something wrong with your eyes
Are you blind, are you high?

Flaws and all
You took me in with my flaws and all
You gave me something to call a home
You gave me something to call a home

This is a dream, I can't be livin' it
This is a prank, somebody filming this?
Is your head fine, don't feel no dizziness?
You tellin' me not even just a little bit?
24 karat pussy, you made me rich
24 karat pussy, I hit a lick
24/7 I'm on your Insta pics
Who do you work for, who put you up to this?
You laughed at my jokes, three times in a row
I pray for your LOL, you sent a "LMAO"
I pray for the times that you took to write me a poem
And what do you see in me? Tell me what do you know?
You know the sun owes you just for the way that you glow
The air owes you for letting it in your nose
The sand owes you for letting it touch your toes
And I owe you everything just for touching your toes
Real nigga shit

Way you love me, you gotta be out your mind yeah
Way you fuck me, you gotta be out your mind
You look at me like I'm really one of a kind
There's something wrong with your eyes
Are you blind, are you high?

Yeah
You took me in with my flaws and all, yeah
You gave me something to call a home
You took me in with my flaws and all
You gave me something to call a home
