

I was on that same shit
Different night
In pursuit of money we got distant
You call at times when you miss me
That was when you'd talk and cry, I'd listen
I was doing good though when shit got different
My head got wrapped in the business
Your head got trapped in resentment
Cause some fuck nigga left you with blisters
Just when you thought it was time to commit
That's the reason why you let him in
That's the reason why you wanna please somebody
Don't be a piece about it to other men
You wanna meet somebody but then again
Just a matter of time before you wanna end it with him
Saying you fed up
Before you I was left alone and reminiscing of what could have been
Look at how they treat you
Can't even tell your sisters now
Look at how they speak to you
Your friends and foes gang up and shit
Look at how how they beef with you
But you on another high
They could never see eye to eye
Girl I'll ride and die for your ass
And yeah that's part of why you don't try to hide
I got you
And you got me
And we golly
And we both live by Ivy
I swear her ghost lives in our bodies
So fuck who judging
You don't ever try to be nobody but you, fuck em judging
You got Ivy and I, we love you

I appreciate you as my brother
Because you're not only a brother to me but you're my best friend
I can talk to you with whatever situation that I have and you always advise me in a good way
You always have my back
And I know if you weren't around then I wouldn't have such a support system that I have from you

And I only got to meet you like three years back
Prior to that I knew nothing about you
I mean, why's that Nothing about my other sisters too
It's all new to me
To be with all of y'all at once, it's still my dream in fact
Y'all know that I'm plotting to rape this game
I'm feeling like no one can stop me
If they know about me, they know about y'all
And probably know about Ivy
I look in the mirror she's all I can see telling me baby you got this
They gonna pay you respect one way or the other with or without a deposit

Even though we don't agree on the same shit all the time

But you do knock some sense into my head and I wouldn't trade you for the world and yeah
That's how much I appreciate you
It's my loved bro, my baby boy!
