

OG
OG...

How much will it cost to bring you back I might pay
How I let you down? I'm drowning in my own pain
We were suppose to link and I kept saying one day
We were suppose to chill in my new crib so I game
I don't know the reason you made it to your last day
Maybe I could have made it better I'm just saying
Best thing I saw just before I woke up was your face
I didn't even get to meet your daughter that's crazy to me dawg

You never gone, you never died
I promise you gonna see the world through my eyes
I promise Imma keep you by my side
I promise you that

Long as I'm here boy you never gone, you never died
I promise you gonna see the world through my eyes
I promise Imma keep you by my side
I promise you that, ey
I can promise you that, ey

Gang, gang, gang
You're still gang
Forever gang
You're still gang
Forever gang
You're still gang

Looks can be deceiving, I can never see that Comment if I did I would have flown back to the sea then
I was possessed to be there
We were taught to be men
O-OGG, O-OGDee
I was possessed to be there
We were taught to be men
No crying no leaning
But bro we possessed to be friends
Don't lie to me
Don't pretend
You had every right to ask for anything you needed
I hope your soul is free there
Heaven gained another good brother with the kindest heart
I get all that from moments I recall
Six hours back seated in the car
Driving to the J&B star babe

How much will it cost to bring you back I might pay
How I let you down? I'm drowning in my own pain
We were suppose to link and I kept saying one day
We were suppose to chill in my new crib so I game
I don't know the reason you made it to your last day
Maybe I could have made it better I'm just saying
Best thing I saw just before I woke up was your face
I didn't even get to meet your daughter that's crazy to me dawg

You never gone, you never died
I promise you gonna see the world through my eyes
I promise Imma keep you by my side
I promise you that

Long as I'm here boy you never gone, you never died
I promise you gonna see the world through my eyes
I promise Imma keep you by my side
I promise you that, ey
I can promise you that, ey

You're still gang
Forever gang
You're still gang
Forever gang...
