

There's nothing they can say to make me hate you
And there's no one God can make that can replace me
I'll tell you why: you're still here before he takes you
You changed my life forever, so thank you
Once in a lifetime, you might meet an angel
And I miss you shawty, I'm forever grateful
We live in a crazy world, don't let it change you
Yeah, we live in a shaky world, don't let it shake you

I want you to myself, I'm so selfish
I think I'm Mr. Right, I can't help it
I think my purpose is to make you feel protected
No matter how we turn out in the end, I'm thrilled
And I want you to myself, I'm so selfish
I think I'm Mr. Right, I can't help it
I think my purpose is to make you feel protected
No matter how we turn out in the end, I'm thrilled we connected

I promised the same thing that I promised in grade 9
I promised to do just what Bruno meant with the train line
And the grenade line, for your life I lay mine
And God forbid it comes to that, hope he carves you another path
And you end up with a great guy that loves you both to death
And teach my son to hold respect close to the chest and always aim high
Until then, I'ma be your heart and arms at the same time
Look the loneliness you once knew in the face and wave bye

Let 'em talk about you, what else can they do?
Not a fuckin' thing, you don't make the rules
Winners gonna win, losers gonna lose
That's right
I would tell 'em fix their face, but they don't have the tools
They mad you got a smaller waist, but you make bigger moves
They gotta do what they gotta do, you can pick and choose
They think you here 'cause they approve, they got their shit confused
I thought I told you this in school, I'm the one who got your missing shoe

There's nothing they can say to make me hate you
And there's no one God can make that can replace me
I'll tell you why: you're still here before he takes you
You changed my life forever, so thank you
Once in a lifetime, you might meet an angel
And I miss you shawty, I'm forever grateful
We live in a crazy world, don't let it change you
Yeah, we live in a shaky world, don't let it shake you, yeah

I want you to myself, I'm so selfish
I think I'm Mr. Right, I can't help it
I think my purpose is to make you feel protected
No matter how we turn out in the end, I'm thrilled
And I want you to myself, I'm so selfish
I think I'm Mr. Right, I can't help it
I think my purpose is to make you feel protected
No matter how we turn out in the end, I'm thrilled we connected
