

Stalling

Nasty C

You can just leave if you wanna leave
If you don't wanna go the whole way there with me, then goodbye, goodbye
You can tell your friends don't bother me
You're f*cking up a good thing and they all can see that I try, I try

I won't come back, I'm sorry (I'm sorry)
I'ma finish what you started (Finish what you started)
I thought you said you was all in?
You stallin', you stallin'
I won't come back, I'm sorry (Yeah)
I'ma finish what you started (Finish what you started)
I thought you said you was all in? (All in)
You stallin', you stallin' (Yeah)

Breaking up, making up, same shit again (Woah!)
I don't wanna play these games with your friends (Woah!)
Pulling you away from me and push you back again (Yeah)
Too unstable to hold me down, now you breakin' your vows and you say I'm not around (Yeah)
But every time your friends let your ass hit the ground, I was makin' you smile
I would tell you that I'm proud of you
You ain't ready for love, girl, it's obvious
You living for your audience
And I was just the ambiance
You play me like a champion
That's why we gotta end it while we're young
If you ain't feeling what I'm feeling, then you must be numb
If we ain't real to one another, then we must be dumb
I think your real life just begun, yeah

You can just leave if you wanna leave
If you don't wanna go the whole way there with me, then goodbye, goodbye
You can tell your friends don't bother me
You're f*cking up a good thing and they all can see that I try, I try

I won't come back, I'm sorry (I'm sorry)
I'ma finish what you started (Finish what you started)

I thought you said you was all in?
You stallin', you stallin'
I won't come back, I'm sorry (Yeah)
I'ma finish what you started (Finish what you started)
I thought you said you was all in? (All in)
You stallin', you stallin' (Yeah)

One day you love me, next you hate me
Who wants to live like that? It ain't me
When anything goes wrong in your life you blame me
This shit is crazy, can't let it phase me
I dodged a bullet, I almost gave you a baby
You're not my woman, you're only here when it's raining
You're not a ride or die, you're a "Ride 'til it's not what you wanted"
You ain't ready for love, where your home at?
Take my feelings with you 'cause you own that, I don't even want that
When I needed you, where was your phone at?
Got me thinking "Where my back bone at?"

Don't know where we going at
We should call it quits, 'cause you ain't calling me
I got a dream to go get, you can't be stalling me
I can't be living with regret when I'm forty three
I'm doing both of us a favour, you should honour me

You can just leave if you wanna leave
If you don't wanna go the whole way there with me, then goodbye, goodbye
You can tell your friends don't bother me
You're f*cking up a good thing and they all can see that I try, I try

I won't come back, I'm sorry (I'm sorry)
I'ma finish what you started (Finish what you started)
I thought you said you was all in?
You stallin', you stallin'
I won't come back, I'm sorry (Yeah)
I'ma finish what you started (Finish what you started)
I thought you said you was all in? (All in)
You stallin', you stallin'
