Nasty Savage

Hell Unleashed

Begin the crucifix behold now show the sign
Hate your enemies
A tongue of fire
the flames of hell unleashed

Open the gates of the infernal empire
Break away from all your convictions
Believe in what's best for you
Within the flesh the carnal desire
Within the soul woe onto them

Without pity death defiant
A standing menace to all
That is true Pontius Pilate
He washed his hands

Did you know how to sell your soul
Do you know how you lost control
Sorrow and suffering served with temptation
What you need is aggravation
Begin the crucifix
Behold now show the sign
Hate your enemies
A tongue of fire
The flames of Hell

Hell unleashed
Hell unleashed
Hell unleashed
Hell unleashed

Keep your friends close, your enemies closer
The four crowned prince
The betrayal of man
Keep your friends close, enemies closer
Challenge the wisdom of his thorn torn brow

Within the flesh carnal desire
Within the soul woe onto them
Invocations in the brains of those Whose respect you have gained.
