

666AM

Nasty

Yes your creation I am
I gained salvation through pain
So now you take a ride with me
Your train to damnation at 666AM

Get the fuck out of my way
You were asking me a 100 times
And yes I am OK
But you should learn to read, between the lines bitch

You left me hurt
I came back stronger
So you returned
And fueled my hunger
That emptiness that you once filled
That part in me that you once killed

But I am back from hell

Back from hell
