

Be Careful

Nasty

You came and you faked it
To claim it
Fake kid, in fact you never ate shit
Praising false truth and you talk and talk and talk
Just like that motherfucking snake did

If entered once you can't stop playing the game
Welcome to a world that you're simply not built for Once you made this step you can't get back

Set on fire if you dance with the devil
And that motherfucker surely gon collect those debts

Sold out your innocence
Gotta pay for your ignorance

Ey my friend be careful what you're wishing for
Shit will bounce right back at you hard if you hunt it
Ey my friend be careful what you're wishing for
Nothing comes for free
And nothings for granted
