

Prediction

Nasty

I know you're looking down me
I'm not as shiny as you're used to get with I'm no prestige at all but
Pure love is pumping through my veins

You are special, I am not. That's how you see it
Like the princess you are. That's how you wanna get treated
And now I will predict it! I'll leave us both addicted

As if you wouldn't dig this. Baby I did predict it
You want it good, you want it bad
You want it slow, you want it fast
And yes I did predict it. This leaves us both addicted
You want it good, you want it bad
You want it slow, you want it fast

And now I am looking down on you
You're breathing heavy and your legs do loop my hips
We close our eyes. We close our eyes and softly touch our lips

You are special, I am not. That's how you see it
Like the princess you are. That's how you wanna get treated
And now I will predict it! I'll leave us both addicted

As if you wouldn't dig this. Baby I did predict it
You want it good, you want it bad
You want it slow, you want it fast
And yes I did predict it. This leaves us both addicted
You want it good, you want it bad
You want it slow, you want it fast

I told you...

You hit me! But I won't go down
You push me! And I won't retreat
You spit! And I lick it off
Grab you by the hair! And we are setting it off
Bending you over, and you feel my breathe
Touching you deep and I grab your neck
Feeling the rhythm, covered in sweat
And after we're done we restart back to back

And yes I did predict it. This leaves us both addicted
You want it good, bad
You want it slow, fast
And yes I did predict it. This leaves us both addicted
No gimmicks no tricks
Simply love as it is
