

Rock Bottom

Nasty

When your life takes the wrong turn
All you thought was right is suddenly wrong
When all those things you built burn
All you took for granted suddenly gone

Friends turn to enemies
Constructs to ashes
Happiness just a memory
Everything crashes

All you see is rain, all you feel is pain
Everyday the same, all you feel is rain

Pouring down on you

When your life takes the wrong turn
All you thought was right is suddenly wrong
When all those things you built burn
All you took for granted suddenly gone

Friends turn to enemies
Constructs to ashes
Happiness just a memory
Everything crashes
