

Ultimate

Nasty

Walking on a cold world hope the ice won't break
A price to pay for clout there's a risk to take

Reaching for the ultimate
Reaching for the max
Knowing you won't live forever

But forever they shall know your name
Reaching for the ultimate

Them words not trusted. Neither walk their path
I know your fear don't you watch your past

You passed the gun so they point on you
You say no to war but they draw you into

Hungry eyes, fire blood, cornered you attack
No way out! Now way out! You're aiming for the neck
Ripping the facade to its foundation
Violence regulating! Reincarnation

All shiny till the times get rough
All blinded till they open up
Clouds raining black from blood-red skies
Eternity gon' listen to the echo of your battle cries
