

Bend A Little My Way

Nat King Cole

Bend a little my way
Lean a little my way
Lovers who are wise
Know love's a compromise
So bend a little my way

No angel am I
No angel are you
I'm bound to make mistakes
But then mistakes are nothing new
Wont you bend a little my way

Love's a two-way highway
A give and take affair
So daring if you care
Then see a few things my way

I'll always love you right or wrong
But if your love is really strong
Please bend a little my way
And we'll go a long way
In love

I'll always love you right or wrong
But if your love is really strong
Please bend a little my way
And well go a long way
In love
