

Forgive My Heart

Nat King Cole

Forgive my heart
My foolish heart
It won't believe we're through
Forgive my heart
You're still a part
Of everything I do

Forgive my lips
If now and then
They speak your name
If you are still
My only thrill
Am I to blame

Forgive my dreams
In all my dreams
It seems your face appears
Forgive my eyes, I realize
I'm only wasting tears
Don't know why you haunt me
But you do
Forgive my heart
I'm still in love with you

Don't know why you haunt me
But you do
Forgive my heart
I'm still in love with you
