

My First and Only Lover

Nat King Cole

My first and only lover
My first and only lover
I woke up to discover
Doesn't love me

My dreams have been forsaken
My dreams have been forsaken
For someone else has taken
Her love from me

Oh gosh oh gee I'm so blue
'Cause I thought your love was true
I just don't know what to do
Are we really really through
I wonder?

Oh my first and only lover
My first and only lover
There'll never be another
Lover for me

Oh gosh oh gee I'm so blue
'Cause I thought your love was true
I just don't know what to do
Are we really really through
I wonder?

Oh my first and only lover
My first and only lover
There'll never be another
Lover for me
Lover for me
Lover for me
Lover for me...
