I Live for Your Love

Natalie Cole

Stand up, stand on your own That's what they tell me You can make it alone

Where does it say I have to move Far away from you To prove I'm strong Oh when, all it really proves Is I'm lonely without you And loneliness has to be wrong

I live for your love Every minute I live for your love want you in it I live for your love I admit it I live for your love

I wake up, with noone to kiss Sometimes I wonder (wonder, wonder) If I just exists

I know there are people I can see Places I can be And friends who call

Oh but, what good does it do There's no subsitute for you I want you, or nothing at all

I live for your love Every minute I live for your love want you in it I live for your love I admit it

I live for your love and your kisses You know how I miss it Your sweet tender touch I need you soo much that I just can't go on anymore What I wouldn't give for Cause darling

I live for your love My baby, baby yeah I live for your love, oooohhh
