

(I'm Coming) Straight From The Heart

Natalie Cole

All my love belongs to you
I swear it's true
I'm comin' straight from the heart
If you'll allow me to be real
And let me say just how I feel
Cause I don't ever want to part

And if I should lose you
I'd go crazy you see
I'm used to your lovin' ways
If you should see a teardrop fall
Honey, remember
It's all coming straight from my heart

From the heart
Comin' from the heart
Oooh, oooh, oooh
From the heart
Give it to me from the heart

I wouldn't ever lie to you
That is one thing I won't do
And that's straight from the heart
I can believe temptation's belong
And I'll never leave you for someone
And that's straight from my heart

And if I should lose you
I'd go crazy you see
I'm used to your lovin' ways
If you should see a teardrop fall
Honey, remember
It's all coming straight from my heart

I couldn't you take your sweet love from me
Flying like a bird with no sky to fly in
You are the guiding light of my day
Don't take your sunshine away
Together we'll always be
All these things I've said are true
My love belongs to only you
And that's straight from my heart

From the heart
Comin' from the heart
Oooh, oooh, oooh
From the heart
Give it to me from the heart

And if I should lose you
I'd go crazy you see
I'm used to your lovin' ways
If you should see a teardrop fall
Honey, remember
It's all coming straight from my heart

If I should lose you

I, I, I go crazy
I'd be lost
I'd be down
And no-one could pick me up again
Well, well, well, well
You are the guiding light of my day
Don't you ever take it away
No, no, no, no, no
Cause I'm comin' atcha'...

From the heart
Oooh, oooh, oooh
From the heart
Give it to me from the heart
