

Where's Your Angel?

Natalie Cole

So you shut the light
And you say goodnight
And you turn away
You won't face the truth
Got an attitude
But it's still okay
Oh, run from my love
To the arms of sleep
Talk is your friend
But it never keeps

Oh, where's your angel to hold you
Dreams won't fly away
I'm your angel
Come back
Come home with me to stay
Yeah, yeah

I can see you're unsure of me
And you fantasize
You'll be left alone
While I play around
With another guy
Oh, don't be afraid
Cause I'll never leave
Love isn't real if you don't believe

Oh, where's your angel to hold you
Dreams won't fly away
I'm your angel
So come back
Come home with me to stay
Yeah, yeah

Ooh, it's not like before
I'm not looking for the door
And you should know
That I will never let you go

Oh, where's your angel to hold you
Dreams won't fly away
I'm your angel
So come back
Come home with me to stay
