gone

Natalie Jane

Guess I never know what's good until it's gone
'Til you're giving her the world I didn't want
Now I know I know I know that I was wrong
Guess I never know what's good until it's gone
And it was so good

Thought I'd wanna be alone 'til the first night that you didn't show up
Thought I'd wanna go kiss new lips but I miss the old ones
And fuck red wine
That ain't gonna get me over you tonight
It just hit me all at once

I don't mind
I'll be fine
You were only the love of my life

Guess I never know what's good until it's gone
'Til you're giving her the world I didn't want
Now I know I know I know that I was wrong
Guess I never know what's good until it's gone
And it was so good
It was so good

If I just reversed the car
And walked back in that slamming door
If I could just unsay the words that I thought I meant

I know I left a taste so bitter
That you'd never reconsider
Cuz we both know I'd just do it all again
Do it all again
Do it all again

Guess I never know what's good until it's gone
'Til you're giving her the world I didn't want
Now I know I know I know that I was wrong
Guess I never know what's good until it's gone
And it was so good
It was so good
It was so good
Oh
It was so good
